

Wines by the Glass (6oz)

white

Brut Sparking, M. Lawrence “US,” Michigan N/V	11/44
From the master of Michigan bubbly comes this happy and refreshing glass – dry and light...friendly bubbles and tree fruit notes.
Falanghina, Terra di Briganti, Campania, Italy	10/40
Travel south from Rome to find this crisp and fruity white...lemon curd & stone fruit... like a more serious Pinot Grigio!
Grenache Blanc/Viognier, Flying Solo, Languedoc, France	9/36
Bright with fresh lime and green apple; great summer sipper!
Sauvignon Blanc, Arona, Marlborough, NZ,	10/40
Zippy and fresh, with notes of passionfruit, nectarines, & lime zest.
Pinot Grigio, Blustone Vineyards, Michigan	12/48
From one of our favorite small wineries in Leelanau – peach, pear, apricot and lemon!
Treixadura (TX), Flower & Bee, Ribiero, Spain	12/48
A grape only grown in Spain & Portugal...incredible presence on the palate – white flowers, peach skin, pear and herbs. Wow!
Chardonnay, Talmard, Macon, France	11/44
The “unwooded” style – from Burgundy, where they are known for the depth and minerality of their Chardonnays! Ripe pear, green apple and beautiful weight!
Chardonnay, Gravel Bar, Columbia Valley, WA	12/48
Think Cali Chard – rich and full bodied from 8 months in oak. Creamy and toasty!
Riesling, Laurentide, Leelanau, Michigan	12/48
Beautiful honeyed, stone fruit, and pineapple aromas...sweet and delicious! Lovely local winery!
Rosé, Villa Tavernago, Italy	10/40
The perfect summer wine – pink wine made from the Pinot Noir grape, with a touch of fizziness to it! Ripe strawberry, cherry, and raspberry notes – goes down easy!

red

Pinot Noir, Wicks Estate, Adelaide Hills, Australia	13/52
Aussie wine is back and better than ever! This cool-climate Pinot sings with ripe cherry fruit and savory spice.
Grenache/Syrah, Domaine Mireille & Vincent, Cotes du Rhone, France	9/36
Amazing value! Dusty raspberry, cocoa and a long, smooth finish.
Carignan, Sardus Pater “Nur”, Sardinia, Italy	12/48
Island wines are so trendy right now, and this medium-bodied red is fully of dusty ripe strawberries and over-ripe cranberry.
Syrah Blend, Donkey & Goat Winery “Five Thirteen”, El Dorado, California	15/60
The answer to the inevitable question when you are a Somm...what’s your favorite wine? Well... let’s call it top five for me...an homage to Chateauf-neuf-du-Pape where owners Jared & Tracy learned to make wine, this is a natural wine, unfiltered so a little cloudy, savory, fruity, rustic, and incredible. Long finish...leaves you wanting more. Would normally be over $20 per glass...
Cab/Merlot, Chateau la Roche Mezieres, Bordeaux, France	10/40
Tobacco, red plum fruit, and sweet herbs in the finish! Lovely!
Petit Verdot/ Malbec Blend, Chaman Winery, La Consulta, Argentina	12/48
Great depth of flavor – balanced and big...violets, black raspberry, plums and spice. Plenty of grip!
Grenache, Groundwork, Central Coast, California	15/48
Full-bodied & dense dark fruit, raspberry liqueur, sage and earth from Curt Schalchlin of Sans Liege Winery, who has developed quite a following.
Red Blend, Foundry Vineyards “Art & Wine”, Walla Walla, Washington	14/56
Are you a fan of big California blends? It’s time to try a Washington red! This blend of Cab, Malbec, Syrah and Merlot has big cedar and oak notes with a punch of black fruit!
Treasure Hunter “Chloe’s Song”, Napa Valley, California	15/60
Less than 300 cases produced with fruit from Mt. Veeder and Yountville...big, yet elegant! Notes of boysenberry, dark cocoa and savory herbs...truly lovely!
